COOKIES POLICY

We utilise cookies to monitor website traffic and visitor demographics. This data is exclusively utilised for internal purposes and is not disseminated to third parties.

By using our website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or device when you visit websites or use apps.

Web servers use cookies to identify and track users as they navigate a website and to recognise returning users.

HOW WE USE COOKIES

Cookies do not contain any information that personally identifies you, but personal information that we store about you may be linked, by us, to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

We can use the data we get from your cookie use for the following purposes:

1. To recognise your computer when you visit our website;
2. To track you as you navigate our website;
3. To improve the website's usability;
4. To analyse the use of our website.

We use Google Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. Google stores information about website use to create reports. Google's privacy policy is available here.

COOKIE SETTINGS

Users can manage their cookie preferences through their browser settings. For help, visit <https://allaboutcookies.org/how-to-manage-cookies>.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS COOKIES

These cookies are employed to collect data on visitor behaviour within our website. We utilise this information to compile reports and enhance the site's functionality. During each visit to our website, we may automatically collect the following data:

- Technical details, such as your computer's IP address, location, device type, browser type and version, time zone, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform, and service provider.
- Information about your visits, including the full URLs, clickstream to, through, and from our site (including date and time), items you viewed or searched for, page response times, download errors, page interaction information (like scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), methods used to leave the page, and any phone numbers you used to contact us.
